Commodore Bob's Big Day

Sunday, June 4 was a really big day for the PHYC Commodore, Bob McCaw. It was the annual Sail Past for the Port Hope Yacht Club, which Bob reviewed from his yacht Pythagoras. Ceremonies started at 1.00 pm with a march past by the Port Hope Sea Cadets band, followed by a flag raising, a plaque presentation to the PHYC from the Sea Cadets and lots of saluting. Bob was then "piped" aboard his boat, which left the dock to anchor off the mouth of the harbour. Member boats then very slowly sailed past the Commodore (the wind had pretty well died) and saluted, which was returned by Bob with a glass of champagne in his hand. We later learned that the champagne was to celebrate another milestone in Bob's life - 10 years ago he proposed to his wife Donna at a Sail Past, and he decided to try his luck again. Luckily for Bob, Donna accepted both times.

Check out the pictures from the Sail Past in this issue of the Rudder. More pictures can be found on the PHYC website at <http://www.porthopeyachtclub.com>.
